From Tuesday March 2. to Saturday March 6. 1724.

Hague, March 13, N. S.

THE Marquess de Fenelon, Ambassadour from the most Christian King, arrived here the 6th Instant: The next Morning he made a Visit to the Baron de Welderen, President for the Week of the Assembly of the States General, to notify his Arrival; and the same Day he was complimented thereupon on the Part of their High Mightinesses. That Day likewise, the said Ambassadour sent his Secretary to notify his Arrival to all the Foreign Ministers here. The Marchioness, his Lady, came hither from Paris the 11th. The States General have sent Order to M. Wilde their Minister at Petersbourg, to make the proper Compliments to the Czarina, on the Death of the Czar, and on her Accession to the Throne. On the 10th the States of Holland disposed of the Civil and Military Employments vacant in their Repartition, and particularly gave the Command of a Regiment to M. de Langerac one of the new Nobles of their Province.

London, March 5.

On Monday the 1st of March, being St. David's Day, the Society of Antient Britons established in Honour to the Birth-Day of Her Royal Highness the Princess and the Principality of Wales, had a very excellent Sermon preached before them at St. Paul's Covent-Garden by the Reverend Mr. Dean Harris, Clerk of the Closet to His Royal Highness, (their President,) and afterwards went to pay their Duty and Compliment to their Royal Highnesses; when Sir John Austen representing the Right Honourable the Earl of Sutherland, in the Name of the Stewards, congratulated Her Royal Highness upon that Happy Day; from whence they proceeded with great Pomp and Magnificence, with Trumpets and Kettle-Drums playing before them, to Draper's-Hall to Dinner, where a very sumptuous Entertainment was provided; and the King and Church, the Prince and Princess, and all the Royal Family, and several other Loyal Healths were drank by the Stewards and the rest of the Company present, with loud Acclamations of Long live King George, King George and His Posterity for Ever.

By Order of the Stewards at a Sitting had on Wednesday the 3d of this Instant March,

Tho. Jones, Secr.

Whitehall, March 6, 1724 5.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, having ordered the Accompts of the several Masters of the High Court of Chancery, of the Securities, Effects, and Cash, belonging to the Suitors of that Court, deposited in their respective Hands, to be Printed and Published, for the Information of the said Suitors; His Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct, that the said printed Accompts shall this present Saturday the 6th of March, be sent from the General Post-Office, to the Post-Houses of all the Post-Towns of England and Wales, that they may be perused Gratis by all Persons who shall repair to those Post-Houses for that Purpose. His Majesty has also been graciously pleased to order, that the said printed Accompts shall be delivered to the Six Clerks, and to the four Registers, of the High Court of Chancery; to lie open in their respective Offices for the Inspection of the aforesaid Suitors, or their Solicitors.

TOWNSHEND.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.

TOWNSHEND.

Whereas the Persons who broke open the Exchequer, left behind them a new small Gimblet, marked I B. upon the Handle, a Butcher's Hook with a little Notch upon the End of the flat Part, a small Cord, a rusty Tin Pot whited within, in which are some Pieces of Touchwood, and an old pointed Knife with a rough Back, as if used to strike Fire with, in a black Leater Case, having a Cork for an Handle: Any Person or Persons who lately sold such Things, or can give Account to whom they belong, are desired to come to Lord William Powlett's Office at the Exchequer, and view the same, and if they shall thereby discover, or contribute to the Discovery of the Person or Persons to whom they were sold, or do belong, shall have Ten Guineas Reward, to be paid by me John Grainger.
